woven / unwoven

3.16 - 5.31.2023

Every day, we touch dozens of textile objects—from car interiors to office chairs to our own clothing. Through construction, deconstruction, and exaggeration, these artists explore textiles as a departure point to reach new levels of understanding our relationship with fabric.

6.15 - 8.31.2023

From the earliest vegetable dyes to Dutch vanitas still life paintings of flowers and fruit, Feast continues the tradition of food and art. These artists express opinions and render metaphors about food through large-scale drawings, paintings, sculptures, and installations in direct and compelling ways.

beyond painting

9.21 - 12.31.2023

When is a painting no longer a painting? Traditional definitions of a painting are challenged and transformed with unconventional and unusual approaches to this very traditional medium. Artists reach for and land at new understandings of paint as a phenomenon, subject, and material.

counterfeit 2024

1.18 - 2.29.2024

The second iteration of our Counterfeit exhibition promises to be bigger and more impressive than the first! The amazing talents of our regional artists are put to the forgery test as they create “counterfeit” copies of famous works of art. Proceeds from the sale of these works benefit both the artists and Spartanburg Art Museum.
